

Complaints Policy

Remote Risk International Limited is a progressive training organisation providing mandatory training to a range of organisations. We provide a range of First Aid (and other) training and qualifications that are endorsed or accredited by Qualifications Network (QNUK) . Many our courses are accredited by other Awarding bodies. The Policy below sets out how to make complaints to us and, if a qualification is a QNUK qualification, how and when complaints can be made to QNUK.

At Remote Risk International Limited we are committed to providing high quality training and qualifications, and to ensuring that equality of opportunity underpins all aspects of our work.

This policy relates to complaints that our customers, students and suppliers may have about our organisation and sets out our formal procedure for dealing with such complaints.

It is important that all complaints are raised directly with Remote Risk International Limited.

Our complaint policy is a four stage process, each process is detailed below, most complaints will be resolved to a satisfactory standard at stage one.

If the complaint is not resolved at stage one then it should be escalated to stage two and if not resolved again it should be escalated to stage three, finally if not resolved at the third stage the final stage should be used.

Stage one:

- Complaint is raised directly with the trainer/assessor conducting the course, who will deal with the complaint at the time that it is raised.
- If the complaint is not about a course but about another aspect of our business, then the complaint should be raised with the staff member the customer is in communication with.

Stage two:

- Complaint should be referred to Remote Risk International Limited head office where there is a named contact who deal with complaints, they can be contacted, in writing by using the following details:
- Matthew Davies, Remote Risk International Limited, 1 Warren Hey, Spital, Wirral, CH63 9LE, 0151 334 5692, info@R2Rinternational.com.
- We will aim to resolve all complaints within 10 working days in writing.

Stage three (if qualifications in question are accredited by Qualifications Network).

- Complaint should be referred to Qualifications Network, who will carry out an investigation into the complaint and will contact the complainant with the results of their investigation.
- Qualifications Network can be contacted by phoning 08451 218 328.

Stage four: (if qualifications in question are accredited by Qualifications Network).

- Stage four is the final stage of the complaint, if your complaint has not been resolved, you can take your complaint to Ofqual.
- You can make us aware of your complaint by letter, phone or email.
