

Appeals Policy

Remote Risk International Limited is a progressive training organisation providing mandatory training to a range of organisations. We provide a range of First Aid (and other) training and qualifications that are endorsed or accredited by a number of organisations, including Qualifications Network. This document sets out how to make an Appeal and, if Qualifications Network is the Awarding Organisation, how an appeal can be made to Qualifications Network.

At Remote Risk International Limited we are committed to providing high quality training and qualifications, and to ensuring that equality of opportunity underpins all aspects of our work.

This policy relates to complaints that our customers, students and suppliers may have about our organisation and sets out our formal procedure for dealing with such complaints.

It is important that all appeals are raised directly with Remote Risk International Limited.

Our appeals policy is a four stage process, each process is detailed below, most complaints will be resolved to a satisfactory standard at stage one.

If the complaint is not resolved at stage one then it should be escalated to stage two and if not resolved again it should be escalated to stage three, finally if not resolved at the third stage the final stage should be used.

Stage one:

- Complaint is raised directly with the assessor conducting the assessment, who will deal with the concern/complaint at the time that it is raised.
- The usual course of action would be for the candidate to repeat the assessment.

Stage two:

- If the candidate is still not happy with the outcome of the second assessment they should raise this as soon as possible with the course tutor or centre manager, details of the centre manager are provided here:
- Matthew Davies, Remote Risk International Limited, 1 Warren Hey, Spital, Wirral, CH63 9LE, 0151 334 5692, info@R2Rinternational.com
- We will aim to resolve all complaints within 10 working days in writing.

Stage three: This is only when the qualification is question is accredited by Qualifications Network.

- Only if the candidate is still not happy with the outcome from the training centre can they refer their appeal to Qualifications Network, who will carry out an investigation into the complaint and will contact the complainant with the results of their investigation.
- Qualifications Network can be contacted by phoning 08451 218 328.

Stage four: This is only when the qualification is accredited by Qualifications Network.

- Stage four is the final stage of the appeal, if your appeal has not been resolved, you can take your appeal to Ofqual using their complaint appeal, however, you must have exhausted all options above.

You can make us aware of your complaint by letter, phone or email.
